

Faith Works: Week 5

James says that "The Wisdom from Above is first pure, then full of peace, humility, and willing to yield, full of mercies and good fruits, impartial and without hypocrisy. But the fruits of Righteousness are sown in peace, by those who make peace."

- Where do you consider yourself wise?
- What fruit is that wisdom growing in your life and in your relationships?